AS ADVERTISED IN THE MARCH 2010 ISSUE OF
Golf Digest

The superb new Rees Jones-designed WALDORF ASTORIA® GOLF CLUB is a visual delight that rewards golfers who bring their A-games.

Orlando-bound golfers are adding the spectacular new WALDORF ASTORIA® GOLF CLUB to their must-play list.

The Rees Jones design is the first Waldorf Astoria brand golf club built and operated by Hilton Worldwide, and is one of Orlando's few courses to be free of real estate. The public course is open to all golfers, including guests of the adjacent Waldorf Astoria® Orlando and Hilton Orlando Bonnet Creek, conveniently surrounded on three sides by unaffiliated Walt Disney World Resort.

Water lurks on 14 holes of Jones' masterpiece, which has a player-friendly, five-tee system and is home to 100-plus species of migrating birds and wildlife.

The clubhouse features a full-service restaurant, locker facilities, club/shoe rentals and fully stocked golf shop. Golfers earn Hilton Honors points.

Hotel guests can utilize the Waldorf Astoria Golf Package, which includes a guest room, unlimited golf and a $20 resort credit per person. Prices start at $259 per room, per night.
